WESTWORTH VILLAGE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Urges Taxpayers to Remain on High Alert for IRS Impersonators

Every month, from every State, the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) receives thousands of taxpayer inquiries regarding unsolicited calls and "robocalls" from fraudulent IRS officials demanding immediate payment for unpaid taxes.

Callers tell intended victims they must pay using a pre-paid debit card, money order, or wire transfer. If they refuse to pay, they are threatened with criminal violations, a grand jury indictment, immediate arrest, loss of business, loss of driver's license, or deportation.

What you need to know:

- Generally, the IRS first contacts people by mail – not by phone and never by email.
- The IRS will never ask for payment using a prepaid debit card, money order, or wire transfer.
- The IRS will never ask for a credit card number.

Impersonators who commit this fraud:

- Utilize an automated robocall machine.
- Use common names and fake IRS badge numbers.
- May know the last four digits of your Social Security Number.
- Make caller ID appear as if the IRS is calling.
- Aggressively demand immediate payment to avoid being criminally charged or arrested.
- Claim hanging up the telephone will cause the immediate issuance of an arrest warrant for unpaid taxes.
- Send bogus IRS e-mails to support their scam.
- Call a second or third time claiming to be the Police or Department of Motor Vehicles, where caller ID supports their claim.

If you know your taxes are paid, ignore all electronic, paper, and telephonic correspondence.
